

Matched evidence restores numerical predictions without structural identification

Corrected structural matched-evidence study: 5 worlds $\times$ 3 initial-model arms. All arms received the same direct phase-process evidence; the five-world contrast is descriptive and non-confirmatory. Parametric matched evidence separately yielded 5/5 wrong-direction rejections and 5/5 peak-and-collapse summaries.