

Explicit priors reshape development behavior, but warnings are not selective

Development-only descriptive evidence. Points are paired world seeds and horizontal marks are means; no formal tests or cross-provider capability comparison are performed. The two providers use separate method/harness contracts. Endpoint gains and verbal warnings do not establish law discovery, wrong-prior rejection or transfer.